

FIGHT THE VIRUS STARTS WITH ME

IMPORTANCE OF HAND WASHING

Coronavirus is transmitted through droplets when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

Virus in droplets could survive on surfaces for hours or even days.

Hands after touching contaminated surfaces then our eyes, nose and mouth may possibly transmit the disease.

Wash hands frequently

Wash hands thoroughly before touching eyes, nose or mouth, before eating, after touching public installations and after toilet use